SEC. 308. (a) None of the funds appropriated for fiscal year 1990 by this Act or any other law may be obligated or expended by any entity of the executive branch for the procurement from commercial sources of any printing related to the production of Government publications (including forms), unless such procurement is by or through the Government Printing Office.

(2) Subsection (a) does not apply to (1) individual printing orders costing not more than $1,000, if the work is not of a continuing or repetitive nature, (2) printing for the Central Intelligence Agency, the Defense Intelligence Agency, or the National Security Agency, or (3) printing from commercial sources that is specifically authorized by law or is of a kind that has been routinely procured by or through the Government Printing Office.

(3) As used in this section, the term "printing" means the process of composition, platemaking, presswork, binding, and microform. and the end items of such processes.

SEC. 309. Section 309(a) of title 44, United States Code, is amended by striking out "not to exceed $3,000 in any fiscal year" after "attendance at meetings".

Establishment.

SEC. 310. There is established, as a joint office of Congress, the Special Services Office, which (under the supervision and control of a board, to be known as the Special Services Board, comprised of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate, and the Librarian of Congress) shall provide special services to Members of Congress, and to officers, employees, and guests of Congress.

SEC. 311. Such sums as may be necessary for fiscal year 1990 pay Wages raises for programs funded by this Act shall be absorbed within the levels appropriated in this Act.

Government organization and SEC. 312. Section 6121(1) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting "the Government Printing Office/" after "military department,". Also, section 6133(c) of such title is amended by inserting "(1)" after "(c)"; and by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph: "(2) With respect to employees in the Government Printing Office, the authority granted to the Office of Personnel Management under this subchapter shall be exercised by the Public Printer."

Children and [illegible] SEC. 313. (a) The first section of House Resolution 21, Ninety-ninth Congress, agreed to December 11, 1985, as enacted into permanent law by section 103 of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1987 (as incorporated by reference in section 1010) of Public Law 99-500 and Public Law 99-591) (40 U.S.C. 184b) is amended by striking out "educationally enriching child care" and all that follows through the end of the section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "educationally enriching child care—

"(1) for children of Members, officers, employees, and support personnel of the House of Representatives; and

"(2) if places are available after admission of all children who are eligible under paragraph (1), for children of Senators, children of officers and employees of the Senate, and children of employees of agencies of the legislative branch."

(b) Section 4 of such resolution, as so enacted (40 U.S.C. 184e), is amended—

(4) in subsection (a), by striking out the second sentence; and

(5) in the first sentence of subsection (b), by striking out "to make the reimbursements required by subsection (a) and"